

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Catholic Parochial school is to open its season October 1.

Mesa City will send to the Republican convention Messrs. Barnett, Kimball and Newell.

Nine cars of lumber were brought in by yesterday's train to Phoenix and one car of lumber to Tempe.

The Board of Supervisors meet today for the special purpose of issuing the election proclamation.

The Maricopa County Convention meets this morning at Patton's Opera House, convening at 10 o'clock.

Phoenix lumber merchants are anticipating a heavy building trade this winter and have commenced to prepare for it.

Tempe's representatives in the convention will be Lon Forsee, James Stinson, A. P. Peters, Thompson Walker, M. G. Hill, J. T. Priest and Charles Roberts.

Much complaint is being made as to the condition of the old Maricopa road southwest of the city. It seems to be regarded as a legitimate garbage dump for the refuse of the city and has become, in several places, nearly impassable and decidedly malodorous, owing to the heaped-up refuse.

The Phoenix Base Ball club had a practice game yesterday afternoon on the grounds east of the Lemon Hotel. It was their first for the season, yet a high grade of efficiency was shown. A strong nine will be selected and diligent practice kept up, to the end that the base ball championship of the Territory may be retained at home, during the Fair contests.

The Three Wives to One Husband Company gave an excellent entertainment at the Opera House last night to an audience so large that extra seats had to be provided to accommodate the vast number. The play presented, "Three Wives to One Husband," is a very pleasing comedy. The piece is full of funny situations from beginning to end, and it kept the audience in a roar of laughter nearly the whole evening. The members of the company all acted their roles in a very satisfactory manner, and some of them did especially well. The company is well balanced and does its work thoroughly.—Herald, Mo., Courier.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. H. Steiglitz returned yesterday from Los Angeles.

Mrs. E. H. Hiller and Mrs. George Hoadley returned from California yesterday.

Walter Johnston was in the city yesterday from Tempe, looking over the political field.

Delegate Lon. Forsee drove down from Tempe yesterday to confer with his fellow Republicans.

Governor Powers is up from the lower Gila, and will represent Enterprise precinct in the Convention.

G. V. H. Shearer returned on yesterday's train from a vacation of several weeks, spent in Los Angeles.

Mrs. M. J. Hill and Mrs. Curt Miller returned home to Tempe yesterday, after an extended trip to Pennsylvania.

W. H. Thomas and Tom Treadwell were elected as representatives from Cave Creek to the Republican Convention.

W. H. McGinnis got back yesterday from Yuma, where he has been giving expert testimony in the mining suit of Hubbard vs. Horne.

J. C. Pauley came in yesterday from Humboldt. There still remains a large amount of work necessary to complete the ditch to the placer mines.

With the end of the summer season, the Castle Creek Hot Springs health resort is becoming depleted in population. J. W. Crenshaw has returned, escorting Mrs. D. N. Ambler, Mrs. Simon Novinger, Mrs. Sevier and Miss Rankin.

RECIPROCITY AND PROTECTION.

Mr. Blaine's Last Letter Makes Clear They Are Not Antagonistic.

From the New York Press.

Mr. Blaine's third reciprocity letter makes plainer to Republicans than either of his former missives did, that his reciprocity policy is in entire harmony with the spirit of protection. No well read student of economics needs to be told that reciprocity is strongly urged by Henry C. Carey, the great apostle of protection learning, but in these days, when Democratic politicians and newspapers keep up all the time a vigorous campaign of bluff, it is necessary for Republicans to keep up an equally vigorous campaign of logic and of facts, and Mr. Blaine's latest letter is a valuable and striking contribution to the contemporary literature of protection.

Indeed, no free-traders can accept Mr. Blaine's reciprocity doctrine without admitting that they are wrong and that protection is right. For if it be foolish to give away our market to some other single nation when we could just as well get something for it, how much more foolish it would be to give it away to all nations! If a single nation and a neighboring nation at that, will give us no particular advantage in return for free access to our markets unless we drive a sharp bargain for it, what becomes of the free trade gush about the brotherhood of nations insuring us a millennium as soon as custom houses are abolished? If we can't handle one nation in that way how are we going to handle twenty? Commercially every nation is for itself, and if we do not want the American cow to be milked by the rest of the world we have got to keep the bars up and the bulldog loose.
